HATES TO SUBSCRIBERS The Republican twice a week is $1 50 per year, The Republican and Weekly Cleveland Leader, 82 30. The Republican and Toledo Blade,

The Republican and Ohio Farmer,

The Republican and Farm Journal (monthly) $1.50.

A. Jay Miller,

W. W. Riddle.

orney and Counselor at Law. Office pie's National Bank, Beliefontaine, O. Howenstine & Huston, West and West.

J. D. McLaughlin, (Ex-Probate Judge.)

Law. Will give prompt attention law practice, leans, collections, con and settlement of sutates. Probate appellaity. Office -Rooms I and 2 doe National Bank building.

John C. Hover, ttorpey-at Law. Special attention given to ettlement of estates, collections and loves. Will practice in State and U. S. Courra, Office and S Lawrence block, Beliefont sine, O.

Hamilton Bros . eners at-Law and Real Estate Agen so the in the Hamilton building, east of Logan e., Bellefortaine, Ohio. Particular atten given to collections and settlement of es s. Will practice in state and in United Edward K. tampbell.

Dentist. Modern methods. Chaifant block Dr. Carrie Richeson, Office 120 N. Main St. Residence 720 N. Main St. Office hours, 9 to 11. t. m., 2 to 4 and 7 to 8

Dr. W. H. Outland.

Dr. Oscar Raiston.

Physician and Surgeon. Office.13 East Colu-bus street. Residence 107 North Mad Riv street. Phone 38 three rings for office at two for residence.

Dr. Nallie M. Conner. excepathic Physician, Registered Graduator, A. T. Still School of Osteopathy, Kirkville & Office Chalfant Block, Besidence 200cas folumbus Ave. Office telephone $72 residence

Fr. J. H. Will-on. Homeopathist. Specias attention given to deases of the Nose and Throat. Office on Sou Main street, Bellefontaine, O.

W. S. Southard.

Removed to 118 North Main.

Keller &

essors to Armstrong, Keller & Co.)

DEALERS IN

Seeds. Grain, Wool, Cements,

> Calcined Plaster And all the Best Grades of SOFT and HARD

Warehouse and Office

FRANK R. GRIFFIN DENTIST

Office, Room 20, Lawrence Bldg

And Mother's Comfort

And CUTICURA Ointment,

the great Skin Cure. Not only are they the purest, sweetest, and most effective for preserving, purifying, and beautifying the Skin, Scalp, Hair, and Hands of infants and children, but they afford instant relief and refreshing sleep for skin-tortured babies, and rest for tired mothers, in the severest cases of torturing, disfiguring, itching, burning, bleeding, scaly, crusted, and pimply skin and scalp humors, eczemas, rashes, and irritations, with loss of hair, and are sure to succeed when all else fails.

Sold throughout the world. Cutteurs Sone, 25c., Oint.

Public

Public Sales of all kinds cried

At Reasonable Rates And satisfaction guaranteed. Every effort will be made to make allsales a success, and prompt attention will be given to all correspondence and to all business entrusted to me.

E.B. Norviel,

The Big Four Route

Through Train Service between Circinnati, Toledo and Detroit (Via Michigan Central R.R.)

3 Daily Trains Each Way Parlor Cars, Sleepers, Dining Cars. Your satronage is solicited. Ask for tickets via Big WARREN J. LYNCH, Gen'l Pass, Agent, Circle, att, Ohio

RAILROAD TIMECARD BIG FOUR.-Indianapolis Division

WEST.
to 7, daily	dpt 4:35 am to It daily.	- many Artist many
So 19, daily	Brv 11:30 am
No. 29, daily	0.07 (11:20 9:00
No. 67, daily) arv 8:22 pm
To 13, daily	1 G D1 2 1 2 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1
	A law beauty displayed by the law
No. 3. daily ex Sunday	i dpt 10:05 am
No. 5, daily ex Sunday	. dpt 6:00 pm
Vo. 53, local ex Sunday	. dpt 6:15 ac
BAST.	Lucy 7-50 am

No. 48, daily ... No. 36, daily .. No. 2,daily ex Sunday No. 54, local ex Sunday ...

BIG FOUR-Sandusky Division,

In effect Sept. 4, 1904.	I.
No. 1, daily	n n
No. 19, daily ex Sunday dpt 9:20 as
No. 43, daily ex Sunday. are thing Local are 1:30pc	n .
NORTH BOUND.
No. 5. daily	n
No. 44, daily except Sunday dpt 9:35ac
*0. 25, daily except Sunday arv 6:20p dpt 8:40p Local
T. & O. C.—St. Marys Division. In effect May 1, 1904. NORTH BOUND.
No. 15, daily 8:33at

Did Rising Perform Work.

Full County Service for Kentucky.

BEST IN UNION

Is that State in Its Equipment.

Inspector Is Now Hard at Work in Logan County.

Kentucky has fared well during the past three years in the labors of the Postoffice Department. Three years of the great automobile, and failed, ago there were less than a dozen roral did not find time to seize a rock from free delivery routes in that state the roadside and hurl it with unerr-The Postoffice Department besitated ing aim full at the head of the haughsomewhat in making investigations, owing to the fact that none of the special agents were desirous of accepting this territory in their assignments by reason of the internal political condi-

However, during the Knights Templar conclave in Louisville, three years ago, Col. H. G. Rising, a prominent member of that order, asked to be assigned to Kentucky, and his request was granted by the department. Col. Rising took a personal interest in the tucky possesses today the best equip ped routes of any State in the Union. Recognizing Col. Rusing's ability, the department recently assigned him to the higher class work, that of investi- ful, instinctive and unafraid. gations for full county service and he is now working in this county at such

During his service in Kentucky Colonel Rising established 133 new routes in the state, an average of more Middleburg Ohio than 44 a year, and 200 more were recommended which will doubtless be established within a few months. In all there are 413 routes in Kentucky.

WEDDING IN LIMA.

In the presence of friends and relaives assembled at the home of the bride's father, Dr. J. M. Mills, No. 747 west Market street, Lima, Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, occurred the marriage of Mr. Gibson P. Dildine and Miss Marie M. Milis, two of Lima's prominent and popular young people. Dr. Mills officiated.

The interior of the home was at ractively decorated in autumn leaves and branches, presenting an appearance beautiful to behold. The guests assembled in the parlor where the ceremony was performed. The bride was attended by Miss Laura Borges, of west Spring street. Mr. Jerry Orthwine was the groom s attendant. The bridsl party entered the room to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march as played by Professor Richmond, who also rendered selections throughout the ceremony.

At the conclusion of the ceremony six course wedding supper was served in the dining room, after which Mr. and Mrs. Dildine left for the West, where they will spend their honeymoon. They will return to Lima about the 15th of October. They will be at home in a cozy home on south Baxter and said to the officer, in a decisive

| are 11:15 am | street after December 1st. No more costly and likewise beauti-6:25 pm No more costly and the presents were ever presented any oride of Lima. They completely fitled one room on 9:20 am the upper floor of the Mills home. There were thirty pieces each of cut plass and hand decorated china, a complete dinner set of Haviland china, three silver carving sets and pieces of furditure, silver, art ware, chiua and linen too numerous to mention. nolds a responsible position with the Buckeye Pine Line company and is held in highest esteem by all with whom he is associated. His b.ide, formerly of Bellefontaine, is one of Lima's most accomplished young ness of manner which has endeared her to many friends and made her a favorite in the social circle with which she is identified.

A camp of Spanish-American War "Arrest that man in the machine," A woman can be seeming to agree with them.

"Just wait!" said the boy, "for life is long. Let me have a good time while I can; bull books and study to manhood belong-

"Oh, wait!" he said, when manhood came, "Life is so joyous and gay; Wait! there is time enough for fame-'Rome was not built in a day.'"

"Just wait till the right time comes by and by—Myself I shall never deceive—
Just wait! and you'll see me climbing high—Success I'm sure to achieve!"

"I'm waiting," said he in middle age; In hard and earnest work,"

Though the "snap" he awaited never turned up, And he sat in poverty's chair, Still he quaffed away at his "just wait" In his castles in the air,

Thus old age finds him waiting still, And he sometimes thinks, with a sigh, Of his wasted life—but he had his will, And he's waiting yet—to die!

—Louise Grey Stitt, in Chicago Inter Ocean.

A Modern Juggernaut

By PERCY CHAMBERLAIN

that the brawny man who sprang forward to drag the child from the path ty chaffeur. So it happened that the cry of horror from the street was echoed in kind from the auto, and while tender hands picked up the maimed little body in the street other friendly hands held tions and the further fact that rural the lurching form of the young arisfree delivery was not popular with a tocrat in the auto from pitching out, mejority of the men representing that and the big machine slowed up and stopped under the guidance of one of his friends.

Two athletic young fellows-evidently gentlemen of birth and posttion-leaped from the vehicle and hastened back with black brows. shouting for the police.

In the auto three young women in costly array swabbed the blood from work and a large part of the routes the head of their injured comrade with now in operation were established priceless handkerchiefs of lace and through his recommendations So still more priceless shawls, wraps and It is persecution-little short of black-Auctioneer careful and thorough was he in this lingerie. One pair of dainty arms held the head of the wounded chaffeur that Ken- held the head of the wounded chaffeur, deftly to staunch the wound. For, sneer as you may, these dainty daugha brawny man, evidently a mechanic solent whelp to justice." of the better sort, with wild eyes and restraining arms of a full dozen earnest men and rush to meet them. Just beyond, a group of women gathered about a mangled, broken and moaning little object. They paused, however, but a moment. The more determined of the two rushed toward the struggling mechanic, shouting at the top of his voice:

"Officer, officer, this way; arrest that man, arrest that man."

"Let me at 'em, let me at 'em!" raved the struggling man. "It's the t'other one I'm after-the one who did it, an' did it a' purpose-I heered to him."

The men holding nodded, wisely determined.

less. Ye'll only git into worse troustrength now."

"Is she hurt bad, boys?" he asked. Just then an officer came along and. at the direction of the two young men from the auto, placed the mechanic under arrest. There were deep growls of disapproval among the onlookers, and the mechanic looked dazed. A well-dressed young man who had been watching the incident stepped forward

"Arrest that man in the automobile. I saw the whole incident and I want to lodge a charge of murder against

"Do you know who that is?" de manded one of the automobilists. "I don't care," was the reply. "It is Stephen Hamilton, son Harlow H. Hamilton."

The name was that of one of the great money kings of the day, and the young man who had interfered evi-Mr. Dildine is well known in Lima dently realized its force. He paused a as a young man of unusual business moment and looked grave. At this ability and of sterling qualities. He moment the man in the machine rallied and, half raising himself, said thickly:

"Yes," replied one of his compan-

"Have him arrested," rejoined Hamladies. She possesses an actractive- ilton. "I'll make an example of him I'll make him wish he never had been born before I get through with him." The face of the young man on the curb paled at this and he grew stern will make the proper charges at the station and get out the proper pa-ed from the automobile broke into a card," he said; "I am a responsible business man and I demand that this man be arrested."

One of the auto party went and laid his hand on the speaker's shoulder "Better cut all this out," he said. "Steve is an Indian, and you have nothing to win by antagonizing

The other shook the hand from his shoulder. "I am a law-abiding American citizen," he said, "and the laws are as much for me, or for this man." sweeping his hand toward the me chanic, "yes, or for the poor little girl who has been killed or mangled for life, perhaps, as they are for fellows like you. Perhaps I will be crushed in the operation, but I propose to find out if you fellows are entitled to run your infernal Juggernauts over the rest of us without suffering the pen-

The man in the auto remarked: "H wants to find something out, Charley," he said. "In the interest of liberal education I demand to be taken to the police station and go through all these motions. And when it's all over I will take great pleasure to issue a sheepskin to this inquiring individual, conferring a new D. D. D. on himtor of d- doughheads."

And so this strange group landed peace conclave. at the station and Hamilton made his plaint against John Murray, who Robert Dennis, the young business Hamilton for assault with intent to All were released on bail and the party broke up. A few days later the lawyer for the Hamiltons telephoned Dennis to come and see him. Dennis referred him to his lawyer. Later Judge Pelham, the Hamilton lawyer, called at Dennis' office. "Young man," he said, severely, and that is all right and we will not fight them; but this criminal charge is preposterous-yes, preposterous, sir. mail, sir, and we are not the kind of

"I conceive it to be my duty, sir, replied Dennis simply, "to bring th's ters of the rich are much as other impudent fellow to justice. He ran women on occasion, and are resource- over the child deliberately. I saw the expression in his eyes, and my own As the two young athletes rushed little boy was only six feet from the back toward the spot from whence spot where he ran over the poor little came the rock that had wounded their girl. If it had been mine I would have comrade, angry and swearing ven- killed him without fail. As it is, I geance, they met with a sight which propose to help Murray, who is more chilled their ardor. In front of them or less ignorant, to bring this in-

The face of the lawyer got cold, and foaming lips, striving with all his he said: "Very well, sir; but you ungreat strength to break away from the derstand when you take up this fight that there will be blows to take as well as blows to give. You are in Hamilton interests?"

It certainly was a flerce fight. The state's attorney hesitated a little to push the prosecution and Dennis hired the greatest criminal lawyer in the city to carry the case through. Of course there were postponements and delays, and the matter dragged fear 'im say so-but if ye'll let me go I'll fully. And when it became eviden fix them in a second and then I'll get that Dennis proposed to stick, come what might, all of the tremendous power of the Hamilton millions were reinforced their hold and looked more turned on him. His business venture was assailed from the most potent striking textile workers here, and a "Come Dan," said one, "it's awful quarter, finance, and finally was committee from the cotton mill manu bad, but ye mustn't do anythin' reck- wrecked. Then Dennis took a salaried facturers who signed the wage reduc job, and lost it, and then another and tion agreement was held Thursday ble-an' the little one 'll need all yer another. But the case against Hamilton steadily advanced, and finally it went to trial. It was a hard fought battle on both sides. The poor little crippled Murray girl was a most potent witness, but it was Dennis' clear evidence that won the case. "I saw the automobile coming," he said, "and pulled my little boy onto the sidewalk, gesticulating toward the and of Mantinique on September 16 machine. This man Hamilton glanced Mount Pelee was in full eruption toward them and smiled in a most in- The spectacle was witnessed by those sidewise,' he said to his companionsin toward the children. The children and balls of fire. jumped, but the Murray girl was an instant too late and was caught by the hideous monster. And, sir, Hamilton did not seem to care as the little one was caught under the wheels. Yes, made the camplaint, and it is why am following the case."

The jury never left their Hamilton got five years in the penitentiary, and all the power of his fam- position. ily's millions could not secure a par-

Dry in Switzerland.

same conditions prevailed. For the first time in many years some mountain sides were made available to climbers because of the melting of their ice coverings.

body in which he urged that the ROOSEVELT IS THANKED church take steps to guard the re

For His Pledge in Behalf of Another Hague Conclave.

A LETTER FROM CARNEGIE

n It He Suggests a Plan for Obtaining Universal Peace-Gen. Nelson A Miles Speaks in Favor of Reducing Boston, Oct. 7 .- The arrest and sub sequent reduction of military and was called for Thursday at the session of the international peace congress when resolutions were adopted expressing the opinion that the first task which the world's convention suggested by President Roosevelt should take up, was the gradual disarmament of the powers.

The thanks of the congress were ended to President Roosevelt for his pledge to take the first steps towards convocation of a new internationa moment which the congress yet has seen came when a Boston delegate Charles F. Dole, proposed to amenman, make his complaint against the disarmament resolution by a dec laration that no necessity existed for the United States to view with suspicion the powers of Europe and that, therefore, it was quite unnecessary for America, with the purpose of en forcing the Monroe doctrine, to build up such an immense navy. Several delegates warmly opposed the amendment, first, on the ground that such a you are making a most serious mis- congress composed of American deletake. This entire matter is not worth gates merely, and second, on the the work and annoyance it is going to ground that the congress had no right give all concerned. Of course you to criticize the American government know as well as I do that there is for upholding by a suitable naval force nothing in this charge against Ham- a doctrine, by the enforcement of ilton. All an accident, sir, all an ac- which war had been excluded from the cident-and you know it. Maybe some western hemisphere, and by means of damages involved, like doctor's fees, an insistence upon the open door in the east preventing war also in that jority. A letter was read from Andrew Carnegie in which Mr. Carnegle suggested a unique plan for reaching univer peace. Its nucleus was a union of the great powers, which would be granted authority to enforce as an organization peaceful settlements of all questions in dispute.

Gen. Nelson A. Miles was the principal speaker last night at a congress meeting held in Park Street church to of armaments and the menace of great armies and navies. Congressman Mc-Call presided and several prominent men voiced their opinions.

A Convention of Mormons. Salt Lake City, Oct. 7 .- The seventy-fifth semi-annual conference of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints began in the tabernacle business. Is it wise to antagonize the here Thursday. It was the anniversary of the organization of the church and "It may not be wise," responded thousands of Mormons crowded the Dennis, "but I will land him in the great church auditorium to hear the penitentiary if it costs me all I ever opening address of President Joseph F. Smith. Representatives are present from Canada, Mexico, England and the Pacific islands. In his address, President Smith told of the prosperit of the Mormon church. Twenty missions are maintained throughout the world, with over 1,500 workers in the mission field. A Fruitiess Conference. Fall River, Mass., Oct. 7 .- The conference arranged by local business men between the secretaries of five labor unions, representing the 26,000 and came to naught. Neither party to the controversy would concede single point and at the conclusion

the conference the strike appeared to be no nearer a settlement than when it was declared nearly 12 weeks ago. Kingston, St. Vincent, Oct. 7 .- The captain of the British steamer Siburn the sidewalk, and shouted to the kids which arrived here Thursday, reports to look out. They all moved toward that when the steamer passed the islsolent manner. 'Watch the kids jump on board the Sibun at 2 o'clock in the morning of the day mentioned, the volheard him-and he deliberately turned cano emitting stupendous black clouds

Schooner Sank. Fire Island, N. Y., Oct. 7 .- While roing out from Great South Bay yes- to-day. terday the schooner Glide, of Nev York, grounded on Fire Island bar and sir, and I saw him, and that's why I sank. Her crew was rescued by life savers from the Oak Island life saving station. The captain of the vessel was misled by one of the buoys marking the channel being out of its proper McGraw Says No.

New York, Oct. 7 .- There will be no series of games played this year be-tween the pennant winning teams of happy in the knowledge that they had The past summer was exceptionally the National and American baseball broken the record between Chicago dry and warm in Switzerland, so that leagues. Manager McGraw, of the the hotels in the highest locations New York National league team, said were overcrowded. In the Tyrol the very emphatically last night that he whizzed up to a garage in Thirty-ninth The crew and 185 other passengers would not play a post season series.

> bulletins on its passenger trains between Omaha and San Francisco, The EPISCOPAL CONVENTION. The Archbishop of Canterbury Delly-

ers a Message to the American ed from the automobile broke into a loud laugh. "Well, what do you think of that?" he said.

Is Upheld by the Peace Concanterbury, speaking before a joint canterbury, speaking before a joint between the content of the following man on the curb reddened a bit in his face. "Here is my dened a bit in his face. "Here is my card" he said: "I am a responsible church at Emanuel church yesterday.

Boston, Oct. 7.—The Apchbishop of Canterbury, speaking before a joint beautiful to the following of the house of bishops and house of deputies of the Episcopal church at Emanuel church pesterday. delivered a message to the America

At the session of the house-of dept ties several resolutions to make more of divorced persons were presented One resolution was aimed to prohib the remarriage of a divorced person The whole question will come up later

After reporting against a change in the legal name of the church at this time, the committee appointed by the last convention to consider the matter An attempt was made by Camero Buxton, of Winston, N. C., to present a resolution deploring the action Bishop Potter, of New York, in par ticipating at the opening of the sub-way tavern in New York City, but the esolution was declared out of order. Gen. Stotsenburg, of Indianapolis introduced a resolution condemnia lynching. A number of the souther lelegates voted to table the reso but eventually it was referred to

A GREAT RACE.

Sweet Marie Won the Transylvani

Were Smashed. Lexington, Ky., Oct. 7 .- The Tran sylvania for 2:12 class trotters, valu $5,000, yesterday resulted in possibly

Four world's records were made in the one and a half billion to two Transylvania, besides lowering the dollars, and said it would be for mile of the year on any track. When taxes in Russia because the limit had Tiverton won the first heat in 2:05% been reached. he lowered the event record and made the fastest trotting record of any

Sweet Marie won the third heat in 2:05. This established a world's record for the three fastest heats ever trotted in a race, and her mark is a world's record for the fastest third heat aver trotted in the ultimate victory of Japanese aver trotted in a race, and her mark is a great aver trotted in a race, and her mark is a heat ever trotted in a race. Sweet and the fifth heat in 2:09, thus estab-lishing a world's record for the five fastest heats ever trotted in a race. fastest heats ever trotted in a race. the crew and evidence found at vesterday walked into the savings bank at Treynor, a small town 15 miles east of here, and at the point of a revolver compelled the assistant cashier, Miss Frances Flood, to take $1,700 from the cash drawer and put the money in a bag. Then the robber drove the young woman, who was alone in the bank, into the big vault and locked her in. Customers coming and locked her in. Customers coming into the bank half an hour later heard the girl's screams for help and releas-ants were recently arrested in a raid on a pool room at West Manayunk. this county. Emanuel, who is a telegraph operator, and Clarkson are said to have been the leading spirits in the Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 7.-Samuel A. Cook, of Neenah, has withdrawn from the head of the "Stalwart" rep state ticket and is succeeded by ex-Gov. Edward Scofield. The selection of Scofield as the "stalwart" candidate for governor will be ratified by the state central committee at a meeting

Holdup Men Sent Up for Life. Chicago, Oct. 7 .- Four holdup men were yesterday sentenced to the penitentiary for life. This makes such convictions and sentences of this class of criminals in Chicago within a

Made a New Record.

New York, Oct. 7 .- Tired, travel and New York by nearly 14 hours, cowiz struck a reef on Harble Down street, near Broadway, yesterday in a were saved. The Boscowis was run-A New Feature in Railroading.

Omaha, Oct. 7.—The Union Pacific railroad yesterday began serving news street, near Broadway, yesterday in a 35-horse power automobile. The record breakers left Chicago at 2 o'clock ord breakers left Chicago at 2 o'clock elapsed time, and 51 hours and five coast. The passengers were taken minutes corrected time. Exactly 13 ashore and the drowning of the four bulletins are served to eight trains hours and 53 minutes was clipped children occurred in connection daily. from the best previous record.

FOR HIS NATION ALONE.

Japan Will Have to Borrow $250,000,000 Next Year.

THE RESOURCES OF RUSSIA.

Been Taxed to the Limit and that a Revolution is Threatened—News

Tokio, Oct. 7.—In addressing the members of the united clearing house of Tokio yesterday Count Okuma, the leader of the progressive party, warned the people to prepare for a long war, the date of the termination of which it was now impossible to forestell. He predicted that the cost to Japan for a two years' war, including Japan for a two years' war, inclusive loans which had been alrest placed and the expenses consequent upon the war at its termination we total one billion dollars, which we make the per capita share an Count Okuma said that corr appeared to pervade the military, po-litical and financial departments of corruption had almost reac climax which threatened a revolution.

It was even reported that Gen. Stoessel, now defending Port Arthur, and upon whose shoulders rested the responsibility for the loss of a large share of Russian prestige in East Asia, was guilty of dissipation during the siege. The speaker declared that the weaknesses of the Russians gave the Japanesse many victories.

Japanese many victories. He pointed out that despite her defeats Russia continued to hold the commanding position in Burope and said that even Emperor William was "courting the favor of the Russian

Despite her weaknesses, Okuma said Russia possessed mense resources and had treme advantages in the size of her p the greatest contest in the history of and it would be necessary for the ment was defeated by a large ma-jority.

the trotting turf and was won by anese to make heavy sacrifices in the trotting turf and heats, der to attain success. He predict that the war would cost Russia from the first two heats going to Tiverton.

the fastest trotting record of any horse this year. When he won the second heat in 2:04½ he again lowered these records and made the world's record for the fastest second depreciation in the value of its second the second seco fastest heats ever trotted in a race.

The average time for each heat was the junk indicate the existence of a 2:06 and eleven-twentieths. The first three heats averaged 2:05%.

A Successful Holdup.

Council Bluffs, Ia., Oct. 7.—A robber council Bluffs, Ia., Oct. 7.—A robber walked into the asylings. places on the lower end of the p

St. Petersburg, Oct. 7.—While the admiralty claims to have no knowl. ed her from the vault.

Gamblers are Indicted.

Morristown, Pa., Oct. 7.—The grand jury yesterday returned true bills of indictment against George H. Clarkson and Harry V. Emanuel, of Philadelphia, charged with maintaining a gambling establishment. Fifty-seven others were indicted on charges of aiding the principals. All of the defendant or conditions be propitions. In mand or conditions be propited naval circles it is pointed wednesday morning, the con-might have been favorable for a so Heavy storms raged Tuesday and doubtless compelled the blockading vessels, and particularly the torped vessels, and particularly the top boats, to seek shelter, thus les the way clear for a dash to VI

> Ohio Day at the World's Fair. St. Louis, Oct. 7.—Exercises in the Ohio state building, followed with an informal reception to Gov. Herrick by the Ohio state commission, marked the celebration of Ohio day at the exposition yesterday. The exercises were opened with an invocation by Rev. Locock, president of the Ohio seciety. Hon. William F. Burdell, president of the Ohio commission, responded to the welcoming speech of President Francis.

President Francis. Addresses were made by Gen. John W. Noble, of St. Louis, and Gov. Herrick. Steamer Struck a Reef. Vancouver, B. C., Oct. 7.-News was brought here Thursday that during a